HUNTSVILLE FIGHT IS ON

Charges of Tampering With Voting Machine Are Heard in Court.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—The now famous incorporation case of the city of Huntsville, in Ogden valley, reached the district court today. Proceedings are expected to last most of next week. A majority of the citizens voted for incorporation at the recent municipal election, but another faction immediately brought charges of graft, claiming that the voting machine used was tampered with sufficiently to give a majority to the party favoring incorporation. They succeeded in tying up the proceedings looking to incorporation, and the renewal of the case today was the result.

The voting machine in question was the center of controversy today. Experts from the factory where the machine was constructed reported that so far they could discover there existed a discrepancy of six votes between the total votes indicated and the total count on both sides of the question.

COUSINS RECEIVE WORD OF DEATH OF FATHERS

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—Charles C. Hupfer, proprietor of a local candy store, and E. C. Baker, bookkeeper to the Commercial bank, left together for the east today, both called away by the sudden and almost simultaneous deaths of their respective fathers.

EXTRADITION PAPERS ARE BEING HELD UP

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—Extradition papers for the return of L. C. Curry and his wife, known as "Dolly Dimples," are being held up at Sacramento by the California governor, and it will be at least a week before they can be obtained, according to a telegram received by Baker, who is a cousin, nephew from Detective James P. Pender, who is at Sacramento on route to Los Angeles, where he is awaiting the arrival of extradition papers, telegraphed today that Curry and his wife had resisted every effort to bring them back to Ogden for trial.

NEARNESS TO A THIEF LANDS HIM IN COURT

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—Because he was in the store at the time that Mike Donohue attempted to "lift" two pairs of trousers from the Cohen clothing company, last night, young John Walby was arrested by the police and charged with a similar offense. In police court this morning Walby proved that Donohue was a perfect stranger to him and that he had nothing whatever to do with the theft. He was discharged. Donohue was sentenced to twenty days in the city jail.

SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE.

Ogden, Dec. 18.—Final settlement of the estate of George L. Perkins, deceased, was made in the district court today. Mrs. Nellie Perkins, mother of the deceased, was administrator of the estate, reported that with all accounts settled, $4,925 remains, all of which she avers to her sole legal heir.

STOVE JACKET EXPLODES CAUSING $100 DAMAGES

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Park City, Dec. 18.—Damage to the extent of about $100 was caused at the home of Mrs. William Kneal by the explosion of a hot water jacket. This morning Mrs. Kneal put the jacket on the stove without taking the trouble to examine it, and it is supposed that the water in the jacket had become frozen. When this thawed out, steam generated, causing an explosion.

BUSINESS PROPERTY SOLD

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Richfield, Dec. 18.—One of the largest real estate deals that has been closed in the city for some time was consummated last night when Ole Dasturp of Sigurd bought the Dr. Herbert property in Main street, on North Main street, and is considered one of the best locations here. Mr. Dasturp may erect a big business block soon.

CHILLY AT RICHFIELD.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Richfield, Dec. 18.—Not in the history of this valley has there been such a cold snap as prevails here at present. In the last decade or more December has been one of the pleasant months of the year in this valley, with just enough tang in the air to promote exercise. For the last two weeks the cold has been severe and last night the thermometer touched 10 below zero.

ONE ANNUAL TUBERCULAR SEVER COUNTY JURORS

Inspectors Find Best of Conditions Among Dairy Cattle.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—Out of 96 dairy cows examined for tubercular infection in Weber county in the past week, but one cow was condemned, according to the reports of Dr. Barnhart and Dr. Huffman, inspectors for the government bureau of animal industry. They say that in no section of the state have they found dairy cattle in such healthy condition. The one animal found to be infected had a mild form of the disease and instead of killing it, the owner was instructed to treat it for possible cure.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES ENFORCE QUARANTINE

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—The weekly report of the sanitary inspector's office shows the existence of 15 cases of scarlet fever within the city limits, one case of measles and two of diphtheria. No new scarlet fever cases have been reported during the week and the officials claim that these are well under control.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—Four victims of the "white slave" traffic and two men charged with bringing the women from the city to the east, were taken through Ogden this morning, bound for New York, where there are to be deported. The six prisoners were under the guard of three United States marshals. They were arrested in San Francisco in connection with the national guard of three white slaves.

AGE OF A YOUTH SAVES HIM FROM STATE PRISON

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—His age saved James Riley from the penitentiary today. He recently pleaded guilty to charges of burglary in the district court, but just as he was to be sentenced, counsel advised that he was under 18 years of age. Sentence was delayed 18 years of age. Sentence was delayed 18 years of age.

CLAIMS FARM WILL BE DESTROYED BY RAILWAY

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Dec. 18.—In the suit of Mary O'Donnell for damages to her property by reason of the passing of the Salt Lake & Ogden railway viaduct, the defendant today filed a demurrer and gave notice of its willingness to pay whatever damages a condemnation jury should award. Mrs. O'Donnell is attempting to force the road to change its right of way. She claims a great embankment has been thrown up, completely destroying her small farm.

MUCH ACCOMPLISHED BY CONGRESS SO FAR

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Washington, Dec. 18.—Far better progress is being made with legislation in the house than was anticipated. Before congress convened it was predicted there would be little or no activity prior to the holiday adjournment, and that the disposition to do but a small amount of business would probably characterize the entire session.

MORE TROUBLE OVER THE OKLAHOMA BANKING LAW

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 18.—Restraining order, against State Bank of Oklahoma, was issued today by a suit argued in the district court today. The United States Fidelity & Guaranty company and the Southern Surety company, sureties for the state school land commission in the protection of funds deposited with the commission, asked the court to prevent the bank commissioner from making that state guaranty fund and state banks preferred creditors in closing up the bank's affairs. Judge Clark reserved decision.
